

Handout 1a: Exploration

Teaching the Writer: What Students Need

Chapter Title: _____

Watch the chapter of the data DVD assigned to your table. Take notes from the videos in a way that prepares you to share specifics about how the DVD can be used to address specific instructional, training, or organizational issues that relate to teaching the writer. Be prepared to share your reflections with your table group. You will use your notes in the next activity as the expert on your assigned Chapter.

Guiding questions for viewing:

What can we do to ensure that all students become independent thinkers and writers?

What does the Introduction say?
What do educators say? For those who are assigned the Next Steps chapter, take notes on the role of preparation in teaching the writer.

Handout 1b: Exploration

Teaching the Writer: What Students Need

Guiding question for viewing:

What can we do to ensure that all students become independent thinkers and writers?

What do students say? For those who are assigned the Next Steps chapter, take notes on the role of leadership in teaching the writer.
What do the classrooms show? For those who are assigned the Next Steps chapter, take notes on the role of analysis in teaching the writer.	